Traveling Through Camp Pendleton

All persons entering Marine Corps Base (MCB) Camp Pendleton must have valid photo identification as dictated by Base personnel and are subject to search at any time. Passengers who do not have this required photo ID will be refused entry onto the Base by Camp Pendleton personnel and will not be able to continue their trip on board the NCTD vehicle. It is the responsibility of passengers to meet the security standard or exit the bus at a stop prior to reaching the Base. Base access is subject to discretion of Camp Pendleton personnel. Increased military security protocols and procedures resulting from heightened threat levels or security advisories may result in denial of access to MCB Camp Pendleton at any time and without prior notice.

If a passenger is declined access to the Base, it is the passenger's responsibility to be prepared to consider other transit options. No other alternative transportation will be provided by NCTD to those refused entry onto the Base.

Safety and Security

Your safety is important to us.

Passengers are reminded to be vigilant and report suspicious activity by notifying an NCTD representative, such as a bus operator, train attendant, or train conductor, or by calling the security line at (760) 966-6700.

Remember, “if you see something, say something.” As always, call 911 to report emergencies.

Safety Near the Tracks

Look, Listen, and Live

- Be alert – train distance and speed varies.
- Look both ways – trains may come from either direction at any time.
- Listen for train horns and bells.
- Do not use cell phones. Remove ear buds.

Tracks are for Trains

- Do not take photographs on or near the tracks.
- Do not walk, bike, skateboard, jog, or play on or near the tracks.
- Do not take shortcuts across the tracks.
- Do not lean over railings. Trains can overhang tracks by three feet on each side.
- Do not cross between, under, or walk around a parked train. It may move without warning.

Always Use Crosswalks and Obey All Traffic Signs, Signals and Crossing Gates

- Trains always have the right of way.
- Never walk around or under rail crossing gates.
- Never proceed through a crossing while the red lights are flashing, regardless of the position of the crossing arm. If the red lights are flashing, the arms may still descend upon another approaching train.

On the Platform

- Hold small children by the hand while on the platform.
- Be aware, some trains do not stop at every station.
- Yellow warning strips are located at the edge of station platforms. Stay behind at all times.

Viajar a través de Camp Pendleton

Todas las personas que ingresen a MCB Camp Pendleton deben tener una identificación válida con fotografía como se exige por el personal de la Base y estarán sujetas a registros en cualquier momento. Los pasajeros que no tengan la identificación con fotografía requerida no podrán entrar en la base al pasar por el registro del personal de Camp Pendleton y no podrán continuar su viaje en el vehículo de NCTD. EFFECTIVE JULY 26, 2026 discreción del personal de Camp Pendleton. Los protocolos de seguridad militar y procedimientos más estrictos debido a un nivel de amenaza elevado o avisos de seguridad pueden resultar en que se niegue el acceso a MCB Camp Pendleton en cualquier momento y sin previo aviso.

Si se le niega el acceso a la base a un pasajero, es la responsabilidad del pasajero estar preparado para tomar otras opciones de transporte. Ninguna otra alternativa de transporte será provista por NCTD a las personas que se les niegue entrada a la base.

Seguridad y Protección

Su seguridad es importante para nosotros.

Se les recuerda a los pasajeros estar atentos y reportar actividades sospechosas notificando a un representante de NCTD, como al operador del autobús, a los porteros del tren, al conductor del tren o llamando a la línea de seguridad al (760) 966-6700.

Recuerde, "Si ve algo, diga algo". Como siempre, llame al 911 para reportar emergencias.

Seguridad cerca de las vías

Mire, Escuche y Sobreviva

- Preste atención: la distancia y la velocidad del tren varían
- Mire hacia ambos lados - los trenes pueden venir de cualquier dirección y en cualquier momento
- Escuche para distinguir las campanas o claxon del tren
- No use su celular. Remueva sus auriculares

Las vías son para los trenes

- No tome fotografías en las vías o cerca de ellas
- No camine, ande en bicicleta, en patineta, corra o juegue en o cerca de las vías
- No tome atajos que crucen las vías del tren
- No se recargue sobre las barandillas de seguridad. Los trenes pueden salirse del ancho de las vías hasta tres pies de cada lado

- No cruce entre, por debajo o alrededor de un tren estacionado. Puede moverse sin aviso

Siempre utilice los cruces peatonales y obedezca a todas las señales, letreros y barreras.

- Los trenes tienen el derecho de paso
- Nunca camine alrededor o por debajo de las barreras de los cruces
- Nunca atraviese un cruce mientras que las luces rojas estén en modo intermitente, sin importar la posición del brazo de control de cruce. Si las luces rojas están en modo intermitente, los brazos aún pueden bajar para otro tren que se esté aproximando

En la plataforma

- Agarre a los niños de la mano mientras estén en la plataforma.
- Tenga en cuenta que algunos trenes no paran en todas las estaciones
- En el borde de los andenes de las estaciones hay franjas de advertencia de color amarillo. Permanezca detrás de la línea en todo momento
